

SEMINAR ON ANTI-RAGGING AT BCIP

Ragging as the word embarks fear upon student community in society was again curbed through a descriptive seminar on 'CURB THE MENACE OF RAGGING' organized by Banarsidas Chandiwala Institute Of Physiotherapy, Anti-Ragging committee on 15.10.16, in the auditorium.

Seminar started with introductory presentation of Dr Sumit Kalra, HOD, high-lightening the definition of ragging with the college's steps taken and provisions available for fresher's to report any action related to it. Followed by this Dr Sanjeev Gupta, Director BCIP, presented a Key note on the topic with an emphasis that the campus is completely ragging free and doesn't entails a single episode of ragging.

Dr A.C.Verma, Rt. Professor, Delhi University, consultant Psychologist at IPH college, details the various stages of ragging with exposure to the different physical & Psychological impact of it. Ms. Poonam Dhanda, MSW, Safdarjung Hospital, honorary secretary of NGO 'Touch a life welfare society' discussed the role of fresher's in curbing the ragging and tools available for the same. The event was also graced by presence of Mr H C Verma , Assistant Commissioner of Police, New Friends Colony, New Delhi .& Mr. Yudhveer Singh , SHO Okhla –Phase II New Delhi .Mr. H C Verma also shared the role of police in controlling ragging and how to register complaint in case of ragging

The event was mesmerized by eye catching performance in the form of a skit performed by BPT second year students to depict the negative aspects of ragging & the positive attitude of seniors in understanding the need to curb ragging. Endnote to conclude the seminar was followed by high tea for the guests.

Anti ragging committee was appraised by all for their efforts in organizing this seminar. students performing skit

