

Seminar on Women Safety and Self Defence

16th December 2015

BCIP organised a Seminar on “Women Safety and Self Defence” with an aim to sensitize on the same and to educate the girls of BCIP on redressal of Women Harassment. It was initiated by the institute as an effort to enhance knowledge of girl students to cope with needs of present day scenario. All Girls of BPT and MPT & Faculty/ Staff of BCIP participated in the Program.

The Training Program was organised in association with Delhi Police. Girl Students from Tehkhand Senior Secondary School demonstrated Self Defence Moves. It was followed by the Act on “Women Safety , Independence, Redressal and Self Defence” by artists from the Mahak Group.

Followed by this the officials from Delhi Police, ACP Kalkaji : Mr Jasbeer Singh and SHO, Okhla Mr Naresh Solanki addressed the audience on issues related to Women Rights, Moral and Ethical Values, Social Responsibilities and Justice & Women Harassment and its redressal. They also spoke about the different programs they are conducting in Society viz. Nirbhik Abhiyaan, Shishtachaar Abhiyaan, Parivartan Abhiyaan, etc to educate the girls on thoughtful protocols during times of distress as well as to sensitize the other sections of the society on these issues. They also answered the queries asked by our student delegates when the session was opened for panel discussion.

To appreciate and motivate the students from Tehkhand School, they were felicitated with certificates from Delhi Police and Memento from BCIP.

At the conclusion Director BCIP, Dr Sanjeev Gupta, thanked the Delhi Police officials for their endeavours to help us organise this program and supported the idea of Women Empowerment and facilitation of self-defence skills amongst our College girls.

The seminar was an eye opener and evaded all myths about women being weak/fragile or unable to redress any embarrassing situation or harassment independently and imbibed moral and ethical values in them to deal with such situations.
