

BCIP ANNUAL DIWALI FEST PHOOLJHARI 2017

BCIP celebrated the festival of Diwali by organising Annual Diwali Fest “Phooljhari 2017”, on 17th Oct 2017. The program was inaugurated by Ganesh Vandana and lamp lighting and a warm welcome extended by Dr Sanjeev Gupta. The cultural programs embarked the event, where the students of the institute beautifully presented the essence of social issues viz Antiragging, Digital India, Swatch Bharat and Love for Parents via Drama and also presented Folk dances of North India. They also demonstrated their skills in form of singing and poetry and some semi Bollywood performances as fillers. Various Art and Craft Competitive Events were also held on handmade/self made art and craft items viz Diya Decoration, Greeting card Making, Rangoli, Sapling Pot Decoration and Kandil Making. Students portrayed their seamless talent and skills in them and bagged various prizes. They also displayed their art and craft in the exhibition cum stalls of self made decorated candle and greeting cards painted by the student. As a whole “Phooljhari 2017” organised and coordinated by all faculty members and the institute under the guidance of Dr Sanjeev Gupta, Director BCIP, was an exuberant event, rejuvenated everyone and motivated us all for the coming year ahead. Bidding us all prosperous times ahead the event concluded by prize distribution for the World Physiotherapy Day 2017 and the prizes for the competitive events of the fest Phooljhari 2017. It was followed by lip smacking lunch with all guests of honour and students and faculty.

Winners of the event and their impeccable performances

Cultural Events:

Folk dance Competition- batch 2014

Dance Drama Competition- batch 2015

Singing –Rohit Kumar Halder- batch 2017

Art and Craft Events:

Diya Making- Raksha- batch 2014

Greeting Card Making- Deeksha - batch 2017

Rangoli – Anjali Kumari and Raksha- batch 2014

Greeting Card Making- Shweta- batch 2016

Kandil- Vishal- batch 2017

Sapling Pot Decoration- Apoorva Balodhia -batch 2016

