

Awareness on Women Safety and People from North East India

Seminar was held on 8th Feb, 2017. It was organized by Dr Nidhi Kalra, Dr Charu Chopra and Dr Daksha Dave Mehta.

The seminar, graced by Mr Amit Goel, ACP, Kalkaji and Mr Atul Verma, SHO Okhla was organized to increase awareness among women about their safety and what measures Delhi Police is taking to strengthen the women like self defense training or various mobile applications that they have launched in this regard. They enlightened about the various laws that have been framed to help women and also focused to educate women on the same. They also took a note on various sensitization programs that they are running for the safety of North Eastern population. The program also featured a skit by the students of BPT I and II yr on women Safety and a dance program by BPT III yr students showing the rich culture of North East India.

The program ended on a note of women empowerment and self realization.

BPT I year - 57 students
BPT II year - 43 students
BPT III year - 49 students
BPT IV year - 23 students
MPT I year - 04 students

