Editorial

Dear Readers, As the Editor-in-Chief of this Journal, I am writing to invite you to submit your most important research to the Journal. We are devoted to the latest and outstanding developments in various disciplines of physiotherapy and related fields. I sincerely appreciate your contribution and thank you for your support. The Editorial Review Committee has shaped the journal into a well-respected publication, and this definitely deserves acclamation.

I would like to thank the editorial team members, reviewers and publication team. Your endless efforts and continuing support to our journal has enabled us to move into our fifth year of publication. Working with our knowledgeable and Editorial Board members, I can assure you of its rapid, robust and fair publication process. It is my responsibility to sustain and build upon the Journal's quality and success every year earnestly.

Finally, I wish to encourage more contributions from the physiotherapy scientific community and clinical practitioners to ensure a continued success of this journal. Authors, reviewers and guest editors are always welcome. I also welcome comments and suggestions that could improve the quality of the journal.
